

Señorita Guerrero's Tips for studying a Foreign Language

Vocabulary

1. Make flashcards of vocabulary and review them daily for short periods of time.
2. Review work that you have already mastered to refresh your memory.
3. Write difficult words several times over and over. Say it out loud. Use it in a sentence.
4. Use mnemonic devices (games or tricks) to help you remember certain words.
5. Most texts have a vocabulary list or teachers provide them. Work with your son or daughter by saying the English and they can say the word in the other language.
6. Find a native speaker to practice with.

Grammar

1. Drill and practice on websites such as www.studyspanish.com or access the Home Tutor from Avancemos at classzone.com.
2. Make flashcards with verbs on one side and endings on the other. Choose a certain verb tense and practice the various forms.
3. Use the verbs in sentences and say them out loud.
4. Work with your teacher before or after school or at lunchtime.
5. Make sure your son or daughter has a designated time or amount of time for homework.

Helpful Spanish Websites

<http://www.uni.edu/becker/Spanish3.html>

<http://www.classzone.com/cz/index.htm>

www.studyspanish.com