

CENTRAL LINN SCHOOL BOARD UPDATE

March 11, 2019

COMMUNICATION

Each month, teachers may nominate students for the Superintendent's Award. The award is given in recognition of outstanding personal accomplishments. Recipients for March were: JJ Baney, fourth grade; Danvee Wingren, fourth grade; Kaylie Helget, junior high; Jazmine Compton, high school.

Principal Robyn Bailey explained to the Board the new utilization of MAP testing for k-8th grade which will help individualize education. Reports indicate growth and achievement on standards and what students are ready to learn next.

City of Brownsville's facilities subcommittee members reported on seeking a solution to the outdated recreational center.

Six of the seven board positions will be vacant and open for election. Reminded members to re-apply whom are seeking a new term and to notify the community that applications are due March 21, 2019 to the Linn County Clerk's office. Dena Crowell has applications.
