

CENTRAL LINN SCHOOL BOARD UPDATE

October 10th, 2022

COMMUNICATION

City of Halsey Councilor, Michelle Isom, informed the board that the city is starting a 'Mayor for the Day' essay contest for elementary, middle and high school age students. The winner of each age group will receive a prize and top winners will have an opportunity to compete at the state level and possibly at the national level. The City of Halsey is seeking volunteers of all ages and groups to join the Parks Committee; apply at the city. A monthly event called 'Third Thursday' will be held at the Halsey Community Center at 7:00 p.m. On Third Thursday, attendees have an opportunity to 'meet the counselor' and participate in a themed activity. October's themed activity is Halloween with next month's activity centered on Thanksgiving. Offered on the third Saturday of every month from 9:00-11:00 a.m., at the Halsey Community Center, The Rural Economics Alliance Group will meet with Linn County entrepreneurs to offer partnership, legal and website advice.

Superintendent Pelt reported on the District's Student Investment Account.
