

Student Teachers

The district will participate as a training site for student teachers completing their training at Oregon colleges and universities when it is determined by the superintendent that such participation will be in the district's best interests.

Any student teacher who is assigned to teach in a training program has full authority to teach during the time the student teacher is so assigned, and such assignment has the same effect as if the student teacher were the holder of a teaching license.

Student teachers and practicum students are subject to the same restrictions as members of the licensed staff regarding release of information on student education records and are subject to all Board policies, administrative regulations and teacher rules of the building in which they work.
