

Central Linn School District 552-C

Code: JC
Adopted: 12/12/88
Revised: 04/14/05

School Attendance Areas

It is the goal of the Board to provide an educational program for all youth living within district legal boundaries, who are otherwise entitled to free, public education. The Board will determine attendance boundaries for the schools of the district and will assign students to these schools as necessary. The Board may admit students residing in other school districts, and may require tuition payments as determined on an individual basis.

The superintendent has the power and duty to recommend to the Board the establishment of alteration of attendance boundaries for all schools in the interest of good administration of the instructional program.
