We will have staff and any parents that want to participate bring a crock-pot of chili to sample. We will have them numbered with a bucket by each pot with a sample size cup next to them. Try as many as you like and donate in the can or cans of your favorite chili and the can with the most donations wins. The winner will be announced over the intercom that evening and in the Cobra Tales the following week. Ms. Kildea will also have the REPTILE ROOM to come explore that evening. We will have a donation bucket there as well, but no one will be denied entry without a donation. All donations will go to PTC (Parent Teacher Club) for class funds and future field trips. Donations can be cash or check.
